The deceased was born in the Rhine Providence of Hesse Damstadt, Germany, and emigrated to this country when outfit of the 27 years old. He located for a short time in best made. t. Louis, and then in 1860 went to Ironton, where he resided up to the time of his death. In that period he was twice married, his first wife dying during the war. He afterwards espoused Miss Amanda Weiss, who, with three daughters and one son, survive him. Although Mr. Grandhomme came here a poor man he had accumulated considerable property. He was known to a wide circle as an honest man, a good neighbor and ex-cellent citizen. His funeral on the 8th inst. was one of the largest that evertook place in Arcadia valley. He was coroner of Iron county for many years .- St. Louis Republi-

> Mr. Grandhomme also occupied the position of postmaster of Ironton for sometime, soon after the close of the war. And it may be truthfully said that in every position occupied by him he acquitted himself with sound judgment, with ability, and sterling integrity. Mr. Grandhomme's place in the communiy will be sadly missed by a wide circle of friends who were always made to feel the nore happy in his genial presence. Mr. Grandhomme was generous to a fault. He was honest and true in every fibre and tissue of his heart and nature. He was a quiet unostentatious man, who loved his family and his friends: a man whose benevolence and kindness were the best expression, and the most convincing evidence of a manly and deeply religious na- hill.

To his estimable family we extend sincerest sympathy and condolence. But their sorrow may be sweetened by the Christian's answer to the inquiry of Job: "If a man die shall he live again?"
